

Dear

I want to take the time to sincerely thank you for your donation. You have helped me achieve the goals I set for myself this year. It is organizations like yours that help young people learn how rewarding hard work and community service can be.

Success relies on the generosity of donors such as yourself, and I am very grateful for your support.

Thank you once again.

Sincerely,